

Hey Daddy, Give Me an Xbox

Music, lyrics: Henrik Widegren

Hey daddy, give me an Xbox!
Hey daddy, give me an Xbox!
I know it's something new
But I will always love you
And I will never be blue
If you give me an Xbox

And do you know what I'll do?
Do you know what I'll do?
I will play violent games
Where I shoot out human brains
And people go up in flames
That's what I'll do!

And do you know what happens then?
Do you want to know what happens then?
On the Internet I'll find a friend
Who says his name is Sven
But actually his name is Glenn
And he grows weed

I will do my homework and shine like a light
I will eat my veggies and sleep every night
I will not drink alcohol and I will never curse
And I won't Google naked ladies, but daddy first:

I will buy a lot of drugs
I will buy a lot of drugs
And smoke them in my room
And fill the room with fumes
Until my brain goes boom
And I won't brush my teeth!

Then I will become a crook
Then I will become a crook
And rob old ladies every day
So the cops come and take me away
And in prison I will say:
Thanks for the Xbox!
